

Members code of conduct

Any Barnstoneworth United player, manager, coach, social member, spectator or official present at a match or otherwise involved in any activity staged or sanctioned by CCF or Barnstoneworth United FC must at all times:

- Conduct themselves in a manner that enhances the reputation and goodwill of football on the Central Coast.
- Respect the decisions of match officials.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person regardless of their gender, ability, race, religion, language, politics, nationality or ethnic origin.
- Not engage in discrimination, harassment, intimidation or abuse in any form, including the use of obscene or offensive language or gestures, the incitement of hatred or violence or indecent or racist chanting.
- Not use violence in any form, whether it is against other spectators, team officials, match officials or players.
- Abide by Barnstoneworth United FC (Central Coast) constitution, rules and regulations.

Any person who does not comply with this code of conduct or who otherwise causes a disturbance may be evicted from a venue and banned from attending future matches or events. In the event of necessary action, the person will be asked to attend an internal club judiciary hearing to explain their actions and face further suspensions, fines or possible expulsion from the club as determined at the hearing.
